BURNABY PUBLIC LIBRARY

Services for Children and Families

- Parents: children's librarians can help you find books and more for different ages and on different topics. We can also help you find resources for children and families in Burnaby.
- Group leaders: a children's librarian can coordinate visits for your class or group. We can provide resources, booklists, and make specific recommendations based on your classroom or group. We can talk about books, reading, and encourage literacy. We customize the visit to fit your needs.

Contact the library at eref@bpl.bc.ca or 604-436-5400 and ask to be directed to a Children's Librarian to discuss options.
