

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 30

ORANGE SHIRT DAY

National Day for Truth and Reconciliation

Intergenerational March

Where: UBC Indian Residential School History and Dialogue Centre

When: September 30, 11:00 am to 2:30 pm

What: Educational March on Campus

Cost: Free

---

Orange Shirt Day at Templeton Welcome Garden

Where: Templeton Welcome Garden, 700 Templeton Drive, Vancouver

When: September 30, 2:00 to 5:00 pm

What: Hastings Community Association hosts an Orange Shirt Day event at Templeton Welcome Garden. The event will include Indigenous speakers, drumming, Earth art, music, garden tours, and ice cream. All are invited to gather, remember and play.

Cost: Free

---

IN PERSON EVENTS

Frozen River Performance

Where: Waterfront Theatre, 1412 Cartwright St., Vancouver

When: September 28 to October 16, 2022

What: The West Coast premiere of Manitoba Theatre for Young People's award-winning Frozen River is a play exploring reconciliation, environmentalism, and interconnectedness. In nîkwatin sîpiy, Grandmother Moon shares the story of two young children born under the same blood moon but in different parts of the world. The audience follows their stories as they meet in a forest, and are then introduced to their descendants who meet in present-day Manitoba. Presented by Carousel Theatre for Young People.

Cost: $18 ($14 for school groups of 10+), tickets available online

---

Blanket Exercise

Where: Friday Afternoon - Hawthorne Grove Park's Harris Barn, 4140 Arthur Drive, Delta
Friday Evening - South Delta Rec Centre, 1720 56th St., Delta

When: September 30, 6:00 to 9:00pm
October 1, 9:00 am to 12:00 pm

What: The City of Delta is hosting Blanket Exercises to honour the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation. The experiential and interactive teaching tool examines the historic and contemporary relationship between Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples. The event will include a healing circle where participants discuss the experience together.

Cost: Free, register online

---

National Day for Truth and Reconciliation at Westminster Pier Park

Where: Westminster Pier Park, 16th St., New Westminster

When: September 30, 3:00 to 6:00pm

What: Spirit of the Children (Indigenous non-profit) is hosting a Pipe Ceremony at the Westminster Pier Park in honour of the lost children and survivors of Residential Schools, as well as their families and communities. The event includes a welcoming and guest Residential School Survivors.

Cost: Free

---

National Day of Truth and Reconciliation at Port Moody Station Museum

Where: The Port Moody Station Museum, 2734 Murray St., Port Moody

When: September 30, 10:00am to 1:30pm

What: The Port Moody Station Museum will be screening three documentaries as part of its National Day of Truth and Reconciliation events. The first is 'Honour Senator Murray', who was the chair of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission and a vital figure in raising global awareness of Canada's residential school system atrocities.

This is followed by 'The Story of the Coast Salish Knitters', which spotlights the resourceful women of southern Vancouver Island who knit to put food on the table and keep their families alive, and 'Keepers of the Fire', which shares the stories of Indigenous "warrior women" in Canada who are protecting and defending their land, culture, and people in the tradition of their foremothers.

Cost: Free, register online

---

Be the Change You Want to See

Where: Place des Arts, 1120 Brunette Ave, Coquitlam

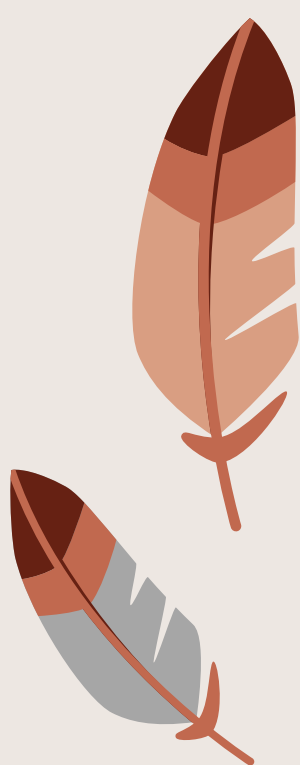

When: September 30, 1:00 to 3:00pm

October 1, 9:00 am to 12:00 pm

What: First Nations artist and facilitator Christine Mackenzie hosts an inclusive workshop at Place des Arts on National Truth and Reconciliation Day. Attendees will help colour in parts of a butterfly's life cycle that will be added to Place des Art's Community Engagement Project display. All ages are welcome.

Cost: Free, register online

---

Skookum Surrey National Day for Truth and Reconciliation

Where: Holland Park, 13428 Old Yale Road, Surrey

When: September 30, 2:00 to 4:00pm

What: Skookum Surrey welcomes everyone to an afternoon of drumming, sharing, tea and bannock at Holland Park to mark National Day for Truth and Reconciliation.

Cost: Free

---

Truth and Reconciliation at Memorial Peace Park

Where: Memorial Peace Park, 11930 224th St., Maple Ridge

When: September 30, 10:00am to 2:00pm

What: Come together in the spirit of reconciliation and hope for the generations of children to come at the Memorial Peace Park in Maple Ridge. Event includes shirt painting, drumming, bannock, community art, various activity tents and an Elder's hospitality tent.

Cost: Free

---

Culture Club at MOA: Honour with Orange

Where: Museum of Anthropology at UBC, 6393 NW Marine Drive, Vancouver

When: September 25, 11:00am to 12:30pm

What: Family-friendly drop-in event of storytelling and lantern-making

Cost: Free with museum admission, free museum admission for Indigenous peoples

---

Sound House: Honouring with Orange

Where: Museum of Anthropology at UBC, 6393 NW Marine Drive, Vancouver

When: September 29, 7:00pm

What: Performances by Tsatu Stalqaayu (Coastal Wolf Pack) and Spakwus Stolem

Cost: $20 (includes museum admissions) free for Indigenous peoples

---

VIRTUAL
EVENTS

Weaving Our Story Towards Reconciliation

Where: Online at culturedays.ca

When: Releasing September 30

What: Tsartlip First Nation artist Priscilla Omulo is releasing her short film on September 30 as part of National Day for Truth and Reconciliation. The film spotlights an art project created with the community that acts as a memorial for Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women, now found at the Port Coquitlam Reflective Space in Blakeburn Lagoon. Part of BC Culture Days 2022.

Cost: Free

---

TRUTH AND RECONCILIATION WEEK

NATIONAL DAY FOR TRUTH AND RECONCILIATION

ORANGE SHIRT DAY

SEPTEMBER 30